Summary: Regina tells her new friend the story of her former "best friend"

REGINA: Why were you talking to Janis Ian? She's so pathetic. Let me tell you something about Janis Ian. I was best friends with her in middle school. I know, right? It's so embarrassing, I don't even... whatever. Then, in eighth grade, I started going out with my first boyfriend, Kyle, who was totally gorgeous but he moved to Indiana, and Janis was, like weirdly jealous of him. Like, if I blew her off to hang out with Kyle she would be like, "Why didn't you call me back!?" And I would be, like, "Why are you so obsessed with me?" So then my birthday was an all-girls pool party and I was like, I can't invite you, Janis, because I think you're crazy. Then her mom called my mom and was, like, yelling at her. It was so dumb, and then in the fall when we started high school all her hair was cut off and she was totally weird.
