I Like Everything!

A My mom keeps telling me I need to eat more fruits and veggies.

B My favorite foods. Natural colors. Natural flavors.

A But I can't decide which ones to pick. Do you like carrots?

B Yeah, they're supposed to be good for your eyes.

A How do you know that?

B Well, did you ever see a rabbit wearing glasses?

A That's pretty funny.

B I like broccoli too.

A Yuck-O! Not me!

B Broccoli's good for your hair, teeth, tongue, and toenails.

A But it's so ugly and fluffy. It's like eating a tree!

B Trees are great! I love trees! I love all kinds of plants and flowers and trees and vegetables!

A I gotta pick out fruit too. Do you like fruit?

B Oh, yeah! Fruit's delicious! How about you?

A Well ... I like some kinds of fruit, but not the ones with a lot of disgusting, sticky little seeds that get caught between my teeth.

B I love disgusting, sticky little seeds that get caught between my teeth!

A That's crazy! Nobody likes those horrible, disgusting kinds of seeds!

B I do! I like everything!
